

CODE OF CONDUCT AND ETHICS

The Allied Health Professions Council of Brunei Darussalam Code of Conduct and Ethics is aimed to set forth standards that are applicable to all Allied Health Professionals practising in Brunei Darussalam.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics not only serves to protect the best interest of clients and public, but it is also to protect the Allied Health Professionals. By outlining the professional values, qualities, conduct and behaviour, Allied Health Professionals are obliged to act professionally and ethically, to ensure good quality healthcare are given to the public.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics (AHPCBD/A) can be downloaded from the Downloadable Documents section.
